

JOSEPH FOURIER PRIZE FOR COMPUTER SCIENCES 2018

Atos / Embassy of France in the Czech Republic

Article 1 Scope of the competition

Atos and the French Embassy in the Czech Republic organize a competition for the “Joseph Fourier Prize” in 2018.

The goal of this competition is to award the best PhD research work in computational sciences. Every institution of research and higher education in the Czech Republic may propose high level candidates.

Article 2 Institutions involved and coordinators

All institutions of research and higher education (university and institutes of the Czech Academy of Sciences) may enlist their students in the competition for the “Joseph Fourier Prize”.

They have to designate a coordinator and provide his or her name to the scientific department of the French Embassy in the Czech Republic at the latest by February 23rd 2018.

Article 3 Criteria for selecting participants

All students of Czech universities, institutions of higher education and institutes of the Czech Academy of Sciences may take part in the competition provided they fulfill the following conditions:

- Their PhD research is encompassed within the topic defined in Article 1
- They are of Czech or Slovak nationality and are younger than 33 years on the date of the Awarding ceremony (see Article 8).
- They are currently enrolled in a doctorate cycle at a Czech institution of research and higher education or they have defended their PhD dissertation in 2017 or 2018.
- Their PhD studies do not collude with any work for Atos.
- They are the author of at least one scientific article published or accepted for publication (to be proven by a letter from the editor) in a peer-reviewed international periodical.

Article 4 Role of the coordinator

The coordinator of the Joseph Fourier Prize 2018 project has the task of organizing the selection of the best participants from the ranks of the students enrolled at the given institution of research or higher education. These candidates will then be entered by the relevant institution in the competition.

The coordinator shall verify that individual participants fulfill the conditions for participating in the competition (viz. Article 3). Subsequently, he/she shall give to the French Embassy in the Czech Republic the names and contact information – personal and work – of all candidates taking part in the competition at the latest by March 16th 2018.

Each coordinator must choose a maximum of two candidates. The president of the selection committee and the attaché for scientific and university cooperation of the French Embassy in the Czech Republic may preselect candidates should there be too many applications.

Article 5 Applications to the competition

Each candidate must deliver by email the complete Application package described in Annex 1 to the French Embassy in the Czech Republic (scientific department) at the latest by April 6th 2018.

Article 6 Selection committee

The selection committee should meet on May 23rd 2018 in Prague.

The committee should be presided over by Xavier Vigouroux from Atos. Further members of this professional selection committee shall be:

- The attaché for scientific and university cooperation of the French Embassy in the Czech Republic.
- One representative of each institution of research and higher education from which candidates have been selected.

Individual applicants shall be invited by the French Embassy. They will present orally – in French or in English – their PhD research to the committee. Presentations shall last 10 minutes, followed by a 10 minutes Q&A.

After the oral presentation, the selection committee shall proceed with the final deliberations. The evaluation of the commission shall be recorded in the protocol. The laureates of the Prize will be informed of the results of the competition within a week after selection committee's meeting.

Article 7 Financial Subsidies and Stipends

- 1st Prize: 60,000 CZK and a stipend for a one-month internship in France
- 2nd Prize: 40,000 CZK and a stipend for a one-month internship in France
- 3rd Prize: 25,000 CZK

The award prizes are provided directly to the winners by Atos.

Stipends for internships in France are provided by the French Embassy in the Czech Republic. These internships must take place in a French research center, and that at the latest by December 15th 2019. The scientific laboratory shall be chosen entirely by the laureates.

A Special Prize IT4Innovations will also be awarded in partnership with IT4Innovations. The winner will be given the right to 50 000 core hours of calculation on Ostrava's supercomputer Salomon.

Article 8 Awarding Ceremony

The official awarding of the Prize will take place on June 20th 2018 at the Buquoy Palace, the seat of the French Embassy, in the presence of His Excellency, the Ambassador of France to the Czech Republic. The awards will be given to the laureates by Professor Jean-Marie Lehn, the Nobel Laureate in Chemistry for 1987.

The formal ceremony shall be attended not only by all awarded students, but also by their PhD supervisors and the representatives of the universities, institutions of higher education and institutes of the Czech Academy of Sciences.

Students might be invited to cooperate with the media (e.g. interviews) and understand that media materials from ceremonial may be used for marketing purposes.
